

Ruky and gloves

This year, Ruky saw that the winter came earlier, it's like autumn didn't exist.

Ruky panicked because he didn't build the house yet. And that wasn't the only problem, because he put some weight this year so he didn't fit into the clothes from last year. He needed gloves, scarf and a fluffy hat. But the only thing he had and still fit him were his red boots.

In the same forest, three friends: Sebastian, Fiona and Elly, were hunting for food and while they were hiding in the bushes, they heard in the distance someone singing. It was the scene like in the Disney movies, lost princess singing with other animals. But in reality it was just Ruky squirrel having his moment.

Sebastian ran to him with intention to kill him for food, but he fell on his butt and Ruky saw him. Scared Ruky tried to run away, but Elly stopped him, promising not to harm him. Ruky hesitated but then Sebastian apologised to him, so things were even. Ruky explained to them how he has trouble this winter, and asked them to help him. Together, they made a home on the tree, where they lived happily ever after, where Fiona made Ruky gloves to match his red boots.

Visnja Lepsanovic, Teodora Mihajlovic I Antonina Pavlicevic 3lt

